

Disaster Contacts

Always keep a list of disaster or emergency contacts visible and handy. You never know when you might need to call for help. Firefighters and police recommend keeping your list on the refrigerator. It's the first place they look for this information when called to the scene.

Your list might include the following emergency services. If you don't have 911 service in your area, list the individual phone numbers of your:

Doctor: _____

Hospital: _____

Ambulance: _____

Fire Department: _____

Police: _____

As well as the numbers for your:

Next-of-kin: _____

Neighbors: _____

Children's Schools: _____

Veterinarian: _____

Insurance Agent: _____

Roofing Contractor: _____
